

Read what your friends and neighbors have to say about Eastminster Preschool:

"Eastminster Preschool has provided a strong foundation for our children as they prepared for their elementary years. The teachers have been outstanding, putting an emphasis on developing social behavior, building self-esteem, and providing Christian values. We have been 100% satisfied!"

*Mark Warners, Grand Rapids Christian High Athletic Director
Amber Warners, PhD, Calvin College professor; Grand Rapids Christian parents*

"Each of our four children completed Eastminster Preschool, and the program exceeded our expectations. All our children left Eastminster prepared for kindergarten, both academically and socially, and they were equipped with the foundational tools needed to be successful in school."

*Dave King, Former Elementary School Principal
Julie King, homemaker; East Grand Rapids parents*

"Eastminster preschool is outstanding. Many adjectives could be used to describe the teachers: loving, dedicated, patient experienced, impressive. They provide a structured, age-appropriate curriculum that is filled with creativity and discovery. Our children can't wait to go to school each day, and they come home with the best projects! Eastminster is a perfect introduction to lifelong learning. Our children were very prepared for kindergarten."

*Jim Rauwerda, adjunct professor of history and communications
Jayne Rauwerda, M.D., pediatrician, Alger Pediatrics;
Grand Rapids Christian School parents*

"Through the years, our 3 children have experienced every program Eastminster Preschool offers. We feel the teaching staff provide excellent academic and social preparation, lots of creativity, and most of all, a nurturing environment, which has fostered a love of learning in all our children."

*Erik Johnson, engineer, Con Tech Construction
Lisa Johnson, M.S.W., family counselor; East Grand Rapids parents*

"We observed many different pre-schools for our children and when we chose Eastminster Preschool we were very impressed. Eastminster's curriculum is developmentally appropriate, child-centered and accommodates all learning styles. Our children are very different learners with varied strengths and weaknesses and we know that each of them will receive a positive, thorough learning experience that will allow them to enter kindergarten with the skills they need to be successful. As parents and educators we could not be more pleased with Eastminster Preschool."

*Kori Crandall Quinn, EdD in leadership, special education teacher
Anthony Quinn, Forest Hills Central High School Teacher / Coach, Forest Hills Parents*
